

China Meteorological Administration

Certificate of Completion

World Meteorological Organization

China Meteorological Administration Training Centre (CMATC) is the specialized and high-level continuing education and training institution for the meteorological sector in China, which is designated as World Meteorological Organization Regional Training Centre in Beijing.

This is to certify that

Dionísio Cândido Nhadelo

has successfully completed the International Distance Training Course on the Basic Principles of Satellite Remote-sensing with honors, which is held by CMATC from 22 June to 3 July 2020 with 45 study hours, sponsored by China Meteorological Administration.

J. Y. Chen

CHEN Jinyang

Director of International Training Department

